Monthly Report
January 2011

Theft

11-36 01-02-11 An Algonquin Road resident reported that a laptop computer was taken sometime during a New Year's party she had at her home. A list of party attendees was provided and TOT Detectives.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: The victim contacted the reporting officer a few days later and advised that she believed her stolen computer was listed for sale on Craig's List. She advised that she had contacted the seller and made arrangements to meet in Morton Grove under the pretense of purchasing the computer. Morton Grove Police were contacted and advised of the scheduled meeting. Morton Grove took the subject into custody for BHPD Detectives to respond and question.

The subject advised detectives that he purchased the computer from another subject that had attended the party in Barrington Hills. The subject was charged with possession of stolen property. BHPD Detectives proceeded to Niles to the other subject's residence. He was taken into custody and transported to Niles PD for questioning. The subject advised that he was extremely intoxicated that night and he did take the computer. The subject was charged with theft, processed and released into the custody of Rolling Meadows PD on an outstanding warrant. Case is pending court appearances.

11-178 01-06-11 A painter, working at a Donlea Road residence reported that a vehicle was missing out of the garage. He stated that the homeowner was out of town and the vehicle was supposed to be there. The vehicle owner was located and advised that no one had permission to take the vehicle. Upon her return to town, she officially reported the vehicle stolen. A few days later, the complainant advised that she located her vehicle in North Barrington in a bank parking lot. The vehicle did not appear to be damaged. The complainant did not want to pursue the matter any further. No further action taken.

Criminal Defacement

11-73 01-03-11 While on patrol, an officer observed graffiti on the Otis Road silo. No one was seen in the area. Photos were taken and attached to the report. No further action taken.

Domestic

- 11-174 01-06-11 Officers responded to reported domestic disturbance at an Old Sutton Road residence. On arrival, officers spoke with the husband who stated he and his wife were arguing over money when she became upset and kicked him. The wife, who appeared to be extremely intoxicated, denied kicking her husband. After viewing the injury to the husband, officers placed the wife under arrest for domestic battery. She was processed and held for bond appearance.
- 11-614 01-28-11 Officers responded to a Penny Road residence for a reported husband / wife domestic. On arrival, officers spoke with both parties. The wife stated an argument ensued over dinner and her husband started throwing things. The husband denied the allegations. The wife decided to leave the home for the night and stay with her daughter. Both parties were issued domestic violence handbooks. No further action taken.
- 11-637 01-30-11 Officers responded to a reported domestic battery between husband / wife at a Plum Tree Road residence. On arrival, the husband advised that during an argument, his wife punched him in the mouth. The officer observed he had a bloody lip. The wife advised that she became stuck in the driveway and her husband was pulling her to get her out of the vehicle and she punched him. The wife was charged with domestic battery and held for bond appearance. No further action taken.
